

Corinne Grant

Comedian/Writer/Actor/Broadcaster/Presenter

Corinne got her TV kick-start as a regular Good News Week panellist back in 1999, and in no time became one of the most familiar faces on Australian television.

Corinne's first full time TV gig was as an original cast member of Rove, first shown on Channel Nine, before moving with Rove Live to the Ten Network in 2000. In 2001 she took on a second job as a founding member of ABC-TV's The Glasshouse continuing with the show until it wrapped in 2006.

Corinne is an accomplished stand-up, MC, presenter, writer and broadcaster and has performed both nationally and internationally. In addition to her years on Rove Live and The Glasshouse, she has appeared on everything from Spicks and Specks to Dancing With The Stars to Good News Week. She has co-hosted successful national radio shows, performed countless solo live shows and appeared everywhere from the Sydney Opera House to the Kalgoorlie Arts Centre. Her natural, down-to-earth charm and her quick wit have made her one of Australia's best known, and most warmly regarded performers.

Corinne is recently completed the narration for the second series of Air Ways, Seven's fly-on-the-wall factual program following the ups and downs of travel on budget airline Tiger Airways.

In September she released a book about hoarding for Allen and Unwin - available in book stores now.
